Michelle Willis is a Canadian singer-songwriter and keyboard player based in New York City.

She made a name for herself touring and writing in two bands led by David Crosby, as well as building an impressive resume performing with artists ranging from world/funk improvisors (Snarky Puppy), punk rock pioneers (Iggy Pop), and a who's who of new and established lush pop, soul and country artists (Becca Stevens, Michael McDonald, Laura Mvula, Zac Brown Band).

Her new album, Just One Voice, an ambitious studio record with an accompanying live and filmed EP, was released April 2022 on GroundUP Music. “Entirely current while harking back to the very best singer-songwriter traditions” (Songwriting Magazine), “Immediately add to your spring jams playlist” (Alison Stewart, WNYC’s All Of It). The album features guest performances by Crosby, Michael McDonald, Grégoire Maret, Becca Stevens and Taylor Ashton.
